

Special Screening: King— Montgomery to Memphis

A special screening of this rarely-seen documentary, made in 1970, traces Rev Dr Martin Luther King Jr's life and accomplishments from the 1955 bus boycott to his 1968 assassination.

KING was originally presented as a one-night-only special event on March 20, 1970. Newly restored by the Library of Congress, in association with Richard Kaplan, and utilising film elements by The Museum of Modern Art, the original version can again be seen in its entirety. ALL WELCOME.

TUESDAY 27TH NOVEMBER
