

Chaplaincy in a Multi-Faith and Secular Context

Designed for those on placement, volunteering or working in chaplaincy or any form of workplace ministry, this course examines chaplaincy in various settings and enables reflection on ethical and theological issues that arise in practice. The encouragement of reflective practice makes this ideally suited for training and CPD purposes. Led by Revd Dr Kim Wasey

Open Learning Course

The course will run from 9.30am—17.30pm across four days. This course is also available as an MA module (MAC4—Chaplaincy in the Multi-Faith and Secular Context) for those registered on our post-graduate programme.
